CMA not proceeding with offer for GPT Metro Fund

Sydney, 1 August 2016: Centuria Property Funds Limited (CPFL), in its capacity as responsible entity for the Centuria Metropolitan REIT (ASX: CMA), today notified GPT Platform Limited (GPL), as responsible entity of the GPT Metro Office Fund (ASX: GMF), that it will not be proceeding with its current takeover bid for GMF (Proposed CMA Offer).

Background

On 16 June 2016 CMA announced its intention to make the Proposed CMA Offer. At the same time Centuria Capital Limited (ASX: CNI) announced it had entered into a facilitation deed with GPL's parent company to facilitate transitioning control of GMF if the Proposed CMA Offer was successful.

It was a condition of the Proposed CMA Offer that the Independent Board Committee of GPL (IBC) recommend the Proposed CMA Offer and no superior proposal was made for GMF (CMA Recommendation Condition).

Subsequently (1 July 2016) Growthpoint Properties Australia Limited, as responsible entity for Growthpoint Properties Australia Trust (ASX: GOZ), lodged its bidder's statement relating to a takeover bid for GMF (GOZ Offer) and announced it had entered into a second facilitation deed with GPL's parent company.

The IBC today announced it recommends the GOZ Offer as a superior bid to the CMA Proposed Offer (IBC Recommendation).

CMA has decided not to increase its offer.

Change in circumstances

The GOZ Offer and IBC Recommendation is a change in circumstances that occurred after the Proposed CMA Offer was announced. This change was not caused by CPFL.

CPFL not proceeding

CPFL has determined it would be unreasonable to expect CMA to proceed with the Proposed CMA Offer given:

- the terms of the GOZ Offer;
- the CMA Recommendation Condition has not been satisfied and the IBC Recommendation has been made in favour of the GOZ Offer; and
- there is the potential for GOZ to take a controlling interest in GMF through the GOZ Offer, then to sell that interest into a CMA offer (in return for the issue of CMA scrip) thus gaining significant ownership of CMA.

Accordingly, CPFL will not be proceeding with the CMA Proposed Offer.

Interest in GMF

CPFL and CNI will continue to consider what is in the best interest of their respective stakeholders and will update the market of any decisions regarding their intentions regarding their combined 16.1% interest in GMF.
