Centuria Capital Limited

- Major Macquarie Park Sale
- Full-Year Results Announcement Date

Sydney, 27 July 2016:

Centuria Capital Limited “Centuria” subsidiary, Centuria Property Funds Limited (CPFL) today announced the settlement for the sale of 80 Waterloo Road and 16 Byfield Street properties in Sydney’s Macquarie Park for $101 million. The properties were owned by the unlisted Centuria Opportunity Fund No 2.

Group CEO John McBain said “Centuria purchased the properties in 2000 for $24 million after correctly identifying the Macquarie Park area as one that would benefit from planned infrastructure developments such as the Chatswood to Epping Rail Link and the expansion of the Macquarie Centre, both of which are now complete.”

He added “For investors, the Macquarie Park sale represents a five-fold return on investment and an Internal Rate of Return of 30%, a significant total return given the sixteen year life of the fund.”

“The Centuria property team led the assets through a lengthy planning process unlocking potential for the site to be developed for residential use. For Centuria the sale has resulted in a significant performance fee with these fees occurring regularly as the funds within the unlisted portfolio mature.”

FY16 Annual Results:

Centuria will be announcing its FY16 Annual Results on Thursday, 18 August, 2016. These results will be available from our website www.centuria.com.au.
