Centuria Capital Group

New $106 million property fund to bring Group FUM to $3.8 billion

Sydney, 5 April 2017

Centuria Capital Group ("Centuria" or ASX: CNI) is pleased to announce:

- New $106 million property fund launched today
- Centuria Capital Group total funds under management (FUM) to increase to $3.8 billion

Centuria Property Funds Limited ("CPFL"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Centuria Capital Group, has today entered into put and call arrangements to acquire 1231 Sandgate Road, Nundah (the "Property") for $106.25 million.

The Property will be acquired by the Centuria Sandgate Road Fund ("Fund"); a new Centuria single asset unlisted property fund, launched to investors today. Settlement is scheduled for early July 2017.

A modern, A-grade office building, centrally located in the metropolitan Brisbane suburb of Nundah, with a net lettable area (NLA) of 12,980 square metres. It is 100 per cent occupied by a range of government and private sector tenants, with a weighted average lease expiry (WALE) of 9.3 years as at 1 July 2017. Government owned entities comprise 81 per cent of the Property's income.

Centuria CEO John McBain said:

"This acquisition is consistent with Centuria's deliberate strategy to enhance organic growth in FUM by acquisition. The acquisition of this Property, combined with previous acquisitions in this financial year, will increase the Group's property FUM by $457 million to $3.05 billion, which will bring the Group's total FUM $3.8 billion."

"The new Fund closely follows the highly successful $72 million Centuria Scarborough House Fund which was heavily oversubscribed. The Unlisted Property division, led by Jason Huljich, has worked hard to identify, research and produce an investment offering of this quality and we believe the Fund is well suited to Centuria's distribution network."
