Structural tailwinds for the broader industrial real estate sector and food related demand

INDUSTRIAL & LOGISTICS GROSS TAKE-UP FROM THE RETAIL TRADE SECTOR AND ONLINE RETAIL SALES (12 MTH ROLLING)¹

Consumer shift to online retail is creating structural tailwinds for industrial real estate

- Total online retail sales growth of 32% over the prior 12 months
- Increased consumer demand for expedited delivery driving tenant need for infill warehousing in key metropolitan areas
- Occupiers within the retail trade sector contributed to 42% of industrial take-up to the end of Q3 2020¹

SHARE OF FOOD RETAIL TO TOTAL RETAIL TRADE²

Rapid increase in online grocery and food sales since the beginning of 2020

- Food logistics tenants drive increased demand for well located, quality cold store facilities
- Overall supply shortage of cold storage facilities relative to demand in Australia
- Demand for consumer staples including food is generally demand inelastic supporting food related manufacturing

This presentation may contain forward-looking statements, guidance, forecasts, estimates, prospects, projections or statements in relation to future matters ('Forward Statements'). Forward Statements can generally be identified by the use of forward looking words such as "anticipate", "estimates", "will", "should", "could", "may", "expects", "plans", "forecast", "target" or similar expressions. Forward Statements including indications, guidance or outlook on future revenues, distributions or financial position and performance or return or growth in underlying investments are provided as a general guide only and should not be relied upon as an indication or guarantee of future performance. No independent third party has reviewed the reasonableness of any such statements or assumptions. No member of CPF2L represents or warrants that such Forward Statements will be achieved or will prove to be correct or gives any warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy, completeness, likelihood of achievement or reasonableness of any Forward Statement contained in this presentation. Except as required by law or regulation, CPF2L assumes no obligation to release updates or revisions to Forward Statements to reflect any changes. The reader should note that this presentation may also contain pro forma financial information.

Distributable earnings is a financial measure which is not prescribed by Australian Accounting Standards (AAS) and represents the profit under AAS adjusted for specific non-cash and significant items. The Directors consider that distributable earnings reflect the core earnings of the Trust.

All dollar values are in Australian dollars ($) or A$) unless stated otherwise.
