Fund commentary

The Fund's 90% allocation to growth assets such as Australian and global equities and listed property drives returns.

Global shares were broadly positive and strong performers in the quarter, ending the quarter with their largest percentage increase since 2020. The Russell Investments Tax Effective Global Shares Fund underperformed the benchmark in the June quarter while producing a strong absolute positive return.

The Russell Investments Australian Opportunities Fund outperformed its benchmark and provided an absolute positive return on strong selections in Materials. Australian shares were positive in the quarter though underperformed international equivalents. Across the whole of the fund and managers, materials led both performance and outperformance with strong stock selection benefitting the fund. Stock selection in Consumer Discretionary and Consumer Staples held back returns as shares rose despite continued inflationary pressures. Changes were made to the fund's manager lineup toward the end of the quarter to support the transition to a core-plus investment structure and optimise performance.

The Russell Investments Australian Shares Index Fund tracked the broader equity market higher. The Russell Investments Tax Effective Global Shares Fund underperformed the benchmark in the June quarter while producing a strong absolute positive return.

The Russell Investments Multi-Asset Factor Exposure Fund outperformed its benchmark and delivered a strong, positive return. Australian property was a positive while international listed infrastructure was slightly positive.

In fixed income, the Russell Investments International Bond Fund - $A Hedged outperformed its benchmark over the quarter; the Russell Investments Australian Bond Fund outperformed, providing a positive return. The Russell Investments Australian Floating Rate Fund outperformed while providing a modestly positive return. Cash was modestly positive through the quarter.
